Dublin is a modern European city with a vibrant cultural scene. Dublin offers work opportunities with leading Irish and international companies in the areas of banking, finance, international business management, information technology, marketing, communications, politics, nonprofits, academic research and legal professions.

The eight-week program will provide students with intensive instruction and examination in Irish history and culture as well as valuable work experience with leading business and communications organizations. Students will also have the opportunity to visit famous cultural institutions through organized outings around Dublin and excursions to historical sites in Ireland such as Belfast, Galway, and the Aran Islands.

What's Included

- 6 credit hours
- Irish History and Culture Course
- Housing
- Internship placement and supervision
- Field trips in Ireland and cultural outings around Dublin
- Orientation to Ireland

What's Not Included

- Meals
- Airfare
- Local transportation
- Personal expenses (i.e. telephone, spending money)

Academic Credit

Students will receive 6 transfer credits from University College Dublin.

Lodging

Students will live in furnished rental housing in Dublin.

All dates and costs are approximate and subject to change as are program details. The University of Richmond reserves the right to alter the program costs as a result of fluctuations of international currency.
